“ Michelle, Don't know if you remember me, but you lived across the street from me in Audubon. Your mom was always so nice to me to help me with my home economics sewing projects cos my mom knew nothing about sewing. Also, I used to babysit you and Mark when your parents drove on their motorcycle to Carroll every friday night to take organ lessons. Your parents were always so generous to me! My deepest sympathy on the loss of Rosemary. Sincerely, Sheiree Christensen Planck

Sheiree, I do remember you and have thought of you and your family often over the years. I remember you and your brother, Brian, performed a magic show for Mark and I at your house one time. I appreciate your kind words regarding my mother. I miss her! Please know that she remembered both you and your family and would occasionally wonder if any of you were still living in the Audubon/Carroll area. My father is still living here in Oklahoma and Mark is living in Carroll. It was truly a pleasant surprise to here from you! Sincerely, Michelle Burrow Cook
