

Ross Myer

November 14, 1942 - November 21, 2025

Ross Phillip Myer was born in Benkelman, Nebraska to parents Everett Ross and Grace Elizabeth (Hansen) Myer on Saturday, November 14, 1942. He was received into Heaven to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, leaving Broken Arrow, Oklahoma on Friday November 21, 2025. He had just celebrated his 83rd birthday.

In 1960, Ross graduated from Wray High School in Colorado. Ross served in the Army Reserves. Along life's path, Ross met the former Caroline Yost, who became the love of his life. After a proper courtship, they were married in Wray, Colorado on Sunday, March 14, 1965. This year they celebrated their 60th wedding Anniversary.

Ross was a hard worker and provided for his family. He was a shoe cobbler by trade and owner of Myer Shoe Repair in Broken Arrow. He enjoyed his work and had an eye for detail. He also liked meeting and talking with people, and his business gave him that opportunity. Ross felt quite at home outdoors, and enjoyed fishing, hunting, golfing, and horseback riding in his younger years. He attended and served as a member of The Assembly Church in Broken Arrow. Ross also attended the Harbor Lights Class on Sunday mornings and went with the Forever Young group to Branson several times, as well as their monthly "Pot Luck" dinners on Tuesday evenings. A weekly highlight of his was playing dominos with a group of his church friends.
