

Roy Adams

November 2, 1924 - March 21, 2020

Roy Monroe Adams Jr, of Broken Arrow, passed away March 21, 2020 at the age of 95. Private family services will be held. Friends may visit Roy at the funeral home 12-5 pm, Wednesday, March 25th.

Roy was born November 2, 1924 to Roy Adams Sr. and wife Bessie (Grant) in Monticello, Arkansas. On October 29, 1946, Roy married the love of his life, Charlotte Stetler, and their union was blessed with three daughters; Janet, Joan, and Nancy.

Roy honorably served his country as a member of the Army Air Corp during WWII as a mechanic mainly on P-38's. He worked as a regional mechanic for Williams Pipeline and was known for his mechanical skills. He was a devout Christian. He diligently studied his Bible, led family devotions at the breakfast table, served many churches as treasurer and song leader, loved gospel quartet music and was known for his integrity and honesty Roy and Charlotte were sponsors for Mother Charlotte's Home for Orphans in India in which the administrators children were named in their honor.. He never was one to gossip and never spoke ill of anyone. Roy loved to fish, could grill the best BBQ chicken and steaks you ever had, and was always and Old School Gentleman.
