“ Royce was a wonderful friend for over 50 years of our family. Our daughter Julie preceded him in death and was flower girl at his and Doris wedding. He was loved by all and very talented at many skills with cars and woodworking. His presence will be truly missed by all his family and friends. All who knew him loved and cared about him. God bless you Royce. Enjoy your heavenly home with your beloved Doris.

“ The good Lord brought you to our Sunday School class a while back. I did not know you but I soon learned about your Broken Arrow history from my wife who knew you and your wife who had passed. I felt the Lord had brought you into my life and I saw him change you as he need me. Your granddaughter started attending our class and we all fell in love with her. I learned to love you Royce Rosser and I hope to see you again someday in Heaven! Jerry Shellenbarger

“ Royce was a good friend and was always willing to lend me a trailer or helping hand. But it always came with advice. He was my favorite domino partner even tho he was a much better player than I was. I visited with him in several different hospitals and ate breakfast with him at Tastee Freeze. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Papa Rosser,

It's hard to put into words how much you meant to everyone. Most people will call you stubborn as a billy goat, others, a grouchy old man, BUT friends and family will call you both plus an amazing sweet teddy bear. A man who knew nothing of a rest day, only hard work. A man who had almost every tool on the planet and to some, things that seem like junk but to you amazing antiques. To me you always had the coolest cars, the horses and chickens (even tho the chickens scared me). You would always tell me stories about how BA looked when you were younger and about cool historical places around BA that i never knew of. You taught me how to make hot dogs the right way (fried in a pan NOT boiled), how to take my car apart to get to my spark plugs, and simple life lessons. You always ate my cooking even when it was nasty, like the time i tried to make chicken breasts, i know they were bad but you encouraged me to learn from that mistake and try again. I'm sorry i couldn't make you another bowl of egg salad, since we finally found the one thing i could make really good XD.

I'm gonna miss coming into the office after work and telling you all about the exciting things i did that day. You always listened to me no matter what. Even when i was in Cali and just wanted to vent and tell you things you always lent me an ear or shoulder to cry on. I'll never forget those things. You were always there for me and helping me to be a better person, teaching me things i didn't know, and helping me to become someone you could be proud of, even tho you were proud of me no matter what. I couldn't have asked for a better grandpa. I love you, tell grandma i love her and bully my dad a bit for me.

With all the love in my heart, rest well and enjoy paradise!!!

Your favorite (and only) granddaughter, Bailie Rosser
