

Russell Miller

July 15, 1960 - March 11, 2018

Memorial Mass for Russell Miller has been scheduled for 11:00 AM, Thursday, March, 15, 2018 at the Church of St. Benedict in Broken Arrow.

Russell Miller was born Friday, July 15, 1960 in Tulsa, Oklahoma, the son of Wade and Marilyn (Ebertowski) Miller. He passed away surrounded by family at his home in Broken Arrow on Sunday, March 11, 2018. He was 57 years, 7 months and 24 days of age.

Russell graduated in 1978 from Broken Arrow High School. He worked as a transport driver for Pepsi bottling company. He had also worked in property management and maintenance. Russell met Kathy May in 2005 in Tulsa and was united in marriage February 14, 2009 in Broken Arrow. Russell had many passions in life, including fishing, hunting, playing horse shoes, baseball, soccer, football, softball, and wrestling with the kids, or adults, with always a smile on his face. Creating statuary pieces and giving them away gave him great joy. Russell enjoyed life to the fullest. He always had a smile and huge heart, he loved grilling for family and friends at many gatherings. He always made sure there was enough food to feed the crowd and no one ever left hungry. Russell was a wonderful husband, Father, brother, Uncle and grandfather. Russell would often express to those around him just how good life is and he was an example how wonderful it was and to cherish every day. He made friends wherever he went and was loved by everyone, but his greatest joy was spending time with his family.

The family requests memorials to Catholic Charities, the Church of St Benedict, 2200 West Ithica Street, Broken Arrow, Oklahoma 74012.

“ What a wonderful man you are Russell Miller. You never met a stranger - we were all instant friends and you gave good advice and friendship. You and Kathy are a great team. Missing you so much; I am so glad my precious lil Siena got to be with you when you hosted the Halloween party; she remembered and had a terrific time. You're one in a million; I'll help look out for your family as you looked out for yours. You gave love and received it in return
