“ From the family of Ken Selzer, Russ was a gentle and caring brother (sister Lois) and a great friend to my father Ken. He was also a fun and mischievous uncle, a gentleman with a lot of class. Uncle Russ and Aunt Sylvia were instrumental in my (Judy) love for airedale dogs and many memories of family outings. He will be missed, God Bless him and his family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Ken Selzer, Judy (Selzer) Akin, Jim Selzer and Jerry Selzer and family.

“ My parents were good friends when I was young. I believe my Dad Jim French worked under him at Sears n Robuck back in the day. Our family met each other and everyone was great, as far as instant friendships. He was a good man, Sylvia a great wife and mother. They raised 2 really good men. Even in high school Cory was such a nice gentleman! I'm so sorry for the family's loss and praying for all of you to get through this. My heart is with you all.

“ I have been blessed to know Russ. He always struck me as a solid person of integrity. When I think of Russ I think of his big hugs-of which I and many were the recipients. My thoughts and prayers are with Sylvia and the family. His legacy goes on through those who knew and loved him. May the peace and comfort of the Lord Jesus Christ fill our hearts.
