“ Sambo - I will always remember that big grin of yours and the good times we had playing football and running track together in high school. I could never keep up with you in the 180 yard hurdles with those big long legs of yours! Now your race has been run my friend and you have claimed the Ultimate Prize. Rest in Peace and may the Lord watch over your family.

“ Sam was a true man of God and brother in the Lord. His life was a true witness of the transforming, saving power of God. I loved singing in the choir with him (back in the day). He was so faithful and positive, and was a real blessing to me and to all who knew him. May all the family be at peace now, knowing that Sam is with the Lord in Heaven and that we will see him again one glad day!

“ Praying for peace, comfort and the Lord's presence for the family.

Sam is probably the friendliest person I have ever met! Seemed like he was always smiling or helping someone.

Sam was the first person I met when our family moved to BA back in 1971, and gave me a ride to and from football practice that summer.

Enjoyed Sam's sense of humor during football and track season as well as the weekends we worked at Consumer's IGA. We used to have a competition as to who could sack up groceries, face the glass aisle, or mop the floors faster. I am pretty sure he won most all of those!

Welcome Home Sam!

“ Always enjoyed watching him praise our Lord during worship. He loved it so much, it was the hardest thing for him to sit and watch and not be up on stage. Sam always enjoyed the smoke chicken that I cooked and always commented on there being nothing like the smell of hickory smome. God's best for all the Campbell family, but He's home now and there is not a better place to be. Love you Sam!!!
