

Sandra Robertson

April 11, 1941 - August 27, 2025

Sandra Lou Robertson was born in Muskogee Oklahoma on April 11, 1941 to parents Walter Raymond and Lavena (Ragsdale) Williams. She passed away in the comfort of home in Broken Arrow on Wednesday, August 27, 2025 at the age of 84. She touched the lives of many and will certainly be missed.

Sandra grew up in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. She graduated from Broken Arrow High School, and during those high school years she enrolled in Drafting. She was an excellent student. In summer, she worked at Braden Winch. After graduation from high school, she went to NSU where she also studied drafting and became excellent in her trade. Sandra drafted the largest dam in the state of California. She did part of the breaking down of an engineering drawing into smaller pieces for the mechanics and foreman to put together and schedule the work order.

Sandra had a variety of interests. In her younger days, she proudly rode in the rodeo. She loved to travel and from her youth she had fond memories of traveling with her family. She looked forward to going on long drives, and usually they were to visit with family. Often there was sightseeing along the way. She had a frugal manner and loved to shop. She always kept up with and could tell you where all the good deals around town were. To know Sandra was to love her. She lived a good life and was a member of Broken Arrow Church of Christ.

Those left to remember her fondly,

Brother-in-law, Willard Cooper of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma

Stepson, Lewis (Shane) Weaver of Mounds, Oklahoma

“ I remember meeting Sandra at a couple of the Broken Arrow Class of 1959 reunions. She was quite a memorable lady, but I learned so much more from her Memorial Service. Wow! She must have been quite an outstanding student with her math and drafting skills! She had every right to be very proud to have been part the Oroville Dam project in CA! I'm not sure which man gave the talk about growing up with Sandra, but your informative talk about several phases of her life and hobbies was so interesting. It made me wish I had known more about her years ago.

My sincere sympathy to all of Sandra's family. May God give you Strength as you need it, Hope as you get used to having to cling to so many wonderful memories. I somehow was not suprized that she loved horses and barrell racing! That would have been fun to ride.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Sandra from elementary school through our high school graduation. She was a personable, likable, and serious student, and we all knew she would do well in whatever she chose to do. To Sandra's family: I am so sorry for your loss. I know she will be greatly missed by all who loved and knew her.
