

Sara (Anderson) DeArmon

July 14, 1982 - September 10, 2023

Sara (Anderson) DeArmon, 41, of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma passed away on September 10, 2023.

Sara was born on July 14, 1982, in Little Rock, Arkansas to Bob Anderson and Laura Jean (Kilgore) Faith. She was raised in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma and graduated from Broken Arrow High School, Class of 2000.

Sara's love of children led her to attend Tulsa Tech where she studied early childhood education.

She went on to work in childcare for many years. Sara's friendly, helpful personality resulted in an opportunity to manage the front desk at a local dental office. She became quite skilled in dental insurance matters, but most enjoyed engaging with and developing relationships with the patients.

Sara was a friend to many and appreciated spending time with those that meant so much to her.

She was a passionate and loyal friend. Sara especially enjoyed being outdoors and experiencing nature. She was always on the lookout for a beautiful sunflower, an animal in need, and the next great fishing hole.

Above all, Sara loved her daughters. She loved Josephine, Sadie, and Charlotte with all her heart.

Sara's definition of a perfect day was one spent exploring nature's wonders with her daughters.

Sara was preceded in death by her grandparents Larry and Patsy Kilgore, and Robert Anderson.

Sara is survived by her daughters: Josephine DeArmon, Sadie DeArmon, and Charlotte Broughton; parents: Bob Anderson and Laura Faith, grandmother Johna Anderson, and brother Justin (Fawna) Anderson.

To honor Sara's memory, memorial services will be held September 15th, at 1p.m. at Hayhurst Funeral Home in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

Memorial donations in Sara's name may be made to National Alliance of Mental Illness (NAMI) of Tulsa <https://www.namitulsa.org/funding>.

“ Sara visited me when I lived in Hawaii, sometime around 2009 or ‘10. Her and I sat on the beach and had the most beautiful conversation about Acceptance. I was freshly coming out as gay, trying to find myself, so I could be the most authentic version. Yet, I was so conflicted of others opinions (mostly my family’s), my religion/spirituality and probably questioned on I could even love myself. Sara looked at me and said, “don’t be silly-you’re an amazing human being who lights up a room and I have a perfect quote for you to live by!” She definitely had my attention and continued to share her words of wisdom, “Be who you are and say what you feel, because those who mind don’t matter and those who matter don’t mind.” (Dr. Seuss)... I’ve lived by this quote everyday for the past 14+ years and I have her to thank for also shining a light in what could have been a dark time for me. I only wish I had the right words now to take away her pain/suffering/heartache and give her back her life.

. That was beautifully written! Thank you for being part of my daughters life. I introduced Sara and her brother to that quote from Dr Seuss early on. It makes me happy that she shared that with you. Thank you for sharing the memories with me. I'm missing her. She lived the last 5 years with me and I am so blessed that she did. 💔

“ I worked with Sara at her dental office. I was one of the hygienist and have fond memories of her two oldest girls coming to the office and how proud she was of them. Her face would light up talking about her girls. She is a sweetheart of a girl.

“ There's no one memory that could sum up my friendship with Sara, but I found this photo of us a few days ago. This is Sara. Walking right beside me, her girls nearby. She taught me so much about being a mom and loving unconditionally. I'm so incredibly sad for her family and all of the other friends she touched. Please accept my deepest condolences.
