

Scott Rabbitt

February 17, 1937 - October 6, 2023

A celebration of the life of E. Scott Rabbitt will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, October 11 in the Okmulgee Cemetery (Section D). Rabbitt, 86, passed away October 5 at his Broken Arrow home.

Rabbitt was born February 17, 1937 in Okmulgee to Lillian Francis (Scott) and C. Bernard Rabbitt, Sr. He was reared in Okmulgee, attended Wilson Elementary School and Okmulgee High School, graduating with the Class of 1955. He played softball and was gifted musically, singing and playing the piano and organ. He served as the organist at the Okmulgee First United Methodist Church for several years.

Rabbitt enjoyed a life-long love of aviation, and following graduation from Okmulgee High School, joined the Air National Guard. He flew, maintained his pilot license, and owned his own plane until recent years when his eyesight grounded him. He shared his love of aviation and ownership of a plane with his close friend Ade Hale, and passed along that love to his grandson Alex Rabbitt.

Following some time working at Douglass, Rabbitt began a 30-year career with American Airlines. He worked as an electrical engineering draftsman until he retired in 1995. After some time, he went to work at Air-works, and worked there for approximately five years.

On June 30, 1961 he married Donna Henry in Henryetta. They had three children, Tonya, Lisa, and Scott.

During their lives together he and Donna enjoyed traveling around the world and spending time at their property on Grand Lake where friends and family were known to visit to ski, play in the water, and enjoy being together.

He also enjoyed fishing, hunting, and sharing amusing stories of his childhood. He had an outgoing personality and quick sense of humor, and enjoyed spending time with friends and family whenever he could.

Rabbitt was preceded in death by his parents, his daughter Tonya and son-in-law Mark Skelton, and his brother C. Bernard Rabbitt, Jr.

He is survived by Donna of the home, his daughter Lisa Chissoe and her husband Brian, son Scott and his wife Anna, grandchildren Alex Rabbitt, Matt and Jon Skelton, and Chris Patty, all of Broken Arrow, multiple great-grandchildren, niece Kay Rabbitt-Brower of Okmulgee, and nephew E.

Bernard Rabbitt of Noble, OK.

Serving as pallbearers are Scott and Alex Rabbitt, Brian Chissoe, Mathew and Jon Skelton, and Chris Patty.

Hayhurst Funeral Home, Broken Arrow, is handling funeral arrangements.

“ I knew Scotty and his brother and family beginning in 1948. I lived two doors from them and their family in Okmulgee and on Okmulgee Street! As a little just starting Woodrow Wilson Grade School, I was drawn to them and their activities...Scotty was very good athletically and Bernard was a Marine, which my father had been in WWII. May God Bless Scotty's family and rest assured that we will all meet him in Heaven someday...That is a promise!!

“ We have so many great memories of your visits wherever we lived. One favorite was when you came to Wyoming with my two sisters and brothers in law. What a fun trip. You found a horned toad and took it back with you to Okla! You were so witty! We love and miss you. Lamar & Illauna
