

Scott Lynch Tully

August 6, 1965 - October 5, 2020

Scott Lynch Tully of Broken Arrow, OK, passed away on October 5, 2020. He was born in Ottumwa, Iowa, on August 6, 1965, to William Fox Tully and Nancy Agnes Crawford. In 1983, Scott graduated from Jefferson High School in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He went on to study business at Coe College, graduating in 1987. He received his Juris Doctorate from The University of Tulsa College of Law in 1990.

Scott began his legal career with a large Tulsa firm and then founded the Tully Law Firm in 2007. For 25 years, Scott was a fierce advocate for his clients and believed that the $1,000 case was worth as much as the $1,000,000 case. Although primarily practicing in Oklahoma, Scott was also proudly admitted to practice in Iowa and Alabama. He has been described as “one of the only lawyers I admired.” Among his clients, colleagues, and strangers, he never let anyone feel insignificant.

At an early age, Scott found his first love – baseball. Baseball brought Scott some of his most memorable and happy times, lifelong friends and later in life, precious memories with his closest friends and family. Scott enthusiastically gave countless hours and donations to community organizations close to his heart and had a soft spot for underprivileged children. He’s known for supplying classrooms with books, buying entire little league teams their uniforms when fundraising was tough, mentoring local high school football players, randomly picking up strangers' tabs and strapping his motorcycle down with dozens of toys for annual toy drives.

Scott's children and grandchildren were undoubtedly the highlight of his life. Friends, acquaintances and strangers heard about his five girls and seven grandchildren every time he spoke. He was so proud of his daughters, the lives they are creating and the places they are going. His grandkids had him wrapped around their fingers. Scott spent as much time with them as he could and made sure each of them had one-on-one time with him and knew how much he loved them. Time with them involved fishing, popsicles in the pool, ice cream, his famous "Papi-corn" and endless prank wars. He was a father and Papi unlike any other and he will be missed immeasurably.

When he wasn't spending time with his family, Scott enjoyed fine-tuning his sarcasm, growing his second business – The Green Goat, annual Iowa trout fishing trips with his brother Billy and their buddies, cheering on the Yankees, Dallas Cowboys and Sooners, driving his Jaguar with the windows down and music blaring, riding his Harley at dangerous speeds, collecting autographs from D-list celebrities, growing his fedora and bowtie collections, attending the Masters golf tournament and about every kind of music imaginable. We recently discovered that he marked over 800 songs as his "favorite" song.

Scott is survived by his wife, Robin Marie Tully; his children, Lindsey McConnell (husband Cliff McConnell), of Broken Arrow, OK; Lacey Ullrich (husband Brandon Ullrich), of Coweta, OK; Maggie Logan (husband Landry Logan), of Moore, OK; Mollie Detamore (husband Aaron Detamore), of Mustang, OK; and Piper Tully, of Broken Arrow, OK; his beloved grandchildren, Audrey, Atticus, Walker and Rose McConnell; Kennedy, Mia and Ace Ullrich; and Witten Logan (arriving this December); his mother, Nancy Crawford of Cedar Rapids, IA; his brother, Billy Tully (wife Katie Tully), of Lakeland, FL; nieces Ally Tully and Grace Tully; nephew Logan Tully; and great niece Zoey Tully. Scott was preceded in death by his father, William Fox Tully and his lifelong best friend and confidant, Jeff Wagon.

A Memorial Service will be held at Hayhurst Funeral Home in Broken Arrow, OK on Monday, October 12th at 11:00am. In lieu of flowers, please consider honoring Scott through a donation to Toys for Tots by visiting <https://www.toysfortots.org/donate/forms/simple/Default.aspx>. Think of Scott next time you enjoy your favorite song. Honor him by telling those closest to you that you love them and that they always make you proud.

“ I grew up with Scott.. and knew when we were kids his life at home wasn't easy... Despite what people thought. I discussed this with him about 10 years ago and he was amazed that I knew... What I knew about his home life. He was always nice to me, and we actually played baseball together in Cedar Hills when we were young. I sincerely hope he didn't suffer, and that he can find peace. I'm truly blown away finding out he passed away...

“ Scott, I wish I had one more chance to tell you how much our long time friendship meant to me. Famous for your quips on Facebook, you were the one to make me blush or laugh or sigh... it hit me today that I will no longer see those famous one liners from you. The thing is, you made everybody feel that way and I hope you knew that. I hope you knew that you lit up the room, taking all the oxygen and turning it into joy and laughter. Your legacy of love and caring will live on in your family and friends, we will honor you by carrying on your generosity and caring. As much as I'm heartbroken that you're gone, I pray you are at peace. To your family, please accept my heartfelt condolences. May you feel comfort and peace that only God can give, in the coming days, months and beyond.

“ for the last 20 plus years I loved you like a Brother and trusted you like my Priest. Never had a friend that invested himself in helping so many. I loved ribbing you on all those crazy clothes and shoes but you know that's what made you "unique," Your love for your girls was always present and You loved to tell everyone that would listen about them. I have a void now that I will never be able to fill, but then again no one would be able to fill it. Rest in Peace my friend until we meet again .....

“ Every now and then, someone crosses your path and changes your way of thinking. I think that describes the way I felt and feel about you. I've worked with you; I've worked for you; and I've been your friend. Friendship was the best of the three. I watched you love your babies and exude pride at the very mention of their names. I've seen you ecstatic and I've seen you despondent. No one was ever happier, and no one was ever sadder. But few people have made me laugh harder! I haven't seen you for awhile and the news of your passing has stunned me, but Heaven is a happier place with you there. Rest In Peace my friend. 'Till we meet again....
