

Shane Hargrove

April 9, 1996 - August 15, 2021

Shane Lee Hargrove was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma on Tuesday, April 9, 1996, to Karen (Leaverton) Hargrove. He passed from this short life to his eternal home in heaven on Sunday, August 15, 2021, in Tulsa, Oklahoma at the age of 25.

Shane had two brothers and a sister whom he dearly loved and always wanted to keep up with. He grew up busy with a very inquisitive mind. He would absolutely talk with anyone who would listen. Blessed with a few close friends who knew Shane to have a big heart. Growing up, he played baseball from T-Ball until his early teens when he discovered martial arts and earned a Green Belt from Apollo's Martial Arts Academy. He loved TV and Video Games and was a whiz on the computer. His family used words to describe him as stubborn, hard-headed, thoughtful, selfless, quick witted, always eager to please and one who loved to give them gifts.

Shane attended school in Broken Arrow but was a 2012 graduate of the Thunderbird Academy in Pryor, Oklahoma. He received several hours of credit from Tulsa Tech in Cyber Security, but instead opened his own auto detailing business by the name of D's Detailing. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

Brother Brandon Simmons of Broken Arrow

Brother Derrick Hollis (Tosha) of Tulsa

Sister Jennifer Webb (Brandon) of Tulsa

Grandmother Carolyn Leaverton of Broken Arrow

Cousins, Nicole Fine, Jackson Fine, and Morgan Fine

Great Uncle Max Leaverton of Tulsa

“ Shane when we first met you where as wild as a field of flowers in the wind, going and blowing in all direction. Then a great storm blow in and for a while we had to part. But like any storm, after the rain the field was fresh and new again, the air was clean, and so where you. Though your Winter rest came way to early for us all, the Fall you left for us to remember though short was the most beautiful of all. My heart it hurts for apart of it is now missing, but my spirit is much fuller from the love you put in it. Go you now to are father in Heaven, your work is done good job dear son.

“ I had the privilege of meeting Shane when he was toddler and I would see him off on on throughout the years and anytime I saw him, he always made me feel close and important to him. I will ALWAYS think of and cherish the hug we shared the last time I saw him. Shane passionately loved his mother and family and will be truly missed.
