

Sharon Brandon

August 4, 1946 - February 26, 2026

Sharon Kay Blissit Brandon was born on August 4, 1946, in Tulsa and passed away on February 25, 2025, after a long and courageous battle with cancer. Sharon graduated in 1964 from Broken Arrow High School. She remained close with her classmates throughout her life and continued meeting with them on their monthly luncheons after moving back to Broken Arrow. Sharon was one of six children who all attended and graduated from Broken Arrow. Sharon worked as a beautician for many years before accepting a managerial position with Sally Beauty Supply, where she dedicated 20+ years before retiring. She took great pride in her work and the relationships she built throughout her career.

On June 22, 2002, Sharon married Ron Brandon in Eureka Springs, Arkansas. Their years together were filled with love and adventure. A few years ago, Sharon and Ron moved to South Padre Island, where she found great peace in the beauty of the ocean. After her son, Jerry's passing, Sharon returned to Broken Arrow to reconnect with family and lifelong friends.

Sharon will be remembered for her strength, sense of humor, love for her family, enduring friendships, and the quiet peace she found by the ocean.
