Velva Sharon was named after my mother and her sister. (My grandparents were very close to Bro. and Sis. Essary). I reconnected with Sharon on Facebook in 2011. When Scott and I made a trip to Hawaii to preach a missions convention, I told him we were meeting with her someday, somehow. He made it happen. We had a great time visiting. I'm so glad we were able to meet!

“ Many memories were made with Sharon. Loved her so much and will miss her. Prayers and thoughts to all her family. My boys always enjoyed when she would come over to our house to visit or came to our family get togethers for cookouts. They would keep everyone laughing. So many treasured memories with her. Love and Prayer, Carla Bean, Martin Bean and family and Nathanael Bean and family.

“ Sharon was a friend from my childhood, going to youth camps and camp meetings, I would see her. Her voice was amazing as were the voices of all her family, but hers seem to soar a little higher than all the rest. I reconnected with her 4 or 5 years ago on Facebook and her friendliness and sense of humor drew me to her again. I'm thinking of the song, "I'm going up to yonder, to be with my Lord." She is safe there and she is loved immeasurably. If anybody asks you, where I'm going, where I'm going soon. I'm going up to yonder, I'm going up to yonder, I'm going up to yonder, to be with my Lord. I pray comfort for her dear family and all of us who loved her. She loved you deeply.
Much love,

“ She was always dancing and prancing around to any song with a good beat. This picture captures those moments perfectly. ”
