Services honoring the life of Sharon Elizabeth Ruth Woolery will be 11:00 a.m., Friday, December 1, 2017 at First Baptist Church, Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. Friends may visit the funeral home on Wednesday from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. with family there to receive visitors from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Burial will take place at 2:00 p.m., Fort Gibson National Cemetery, Ft. Gibson, Oklahoma.

Sharon was born on Thursday, February 25, 1943 in Muskogee, Oklahoma to Jiggs and Earlene (Wright) Wise. Sharon passed away on Saturday, November 25, 2017 at the age of 74.

Sharon graduated from Muskogee High School and went on to earn a Bachelor's degree in Mathematics from Northeastern State University. Although her degree was in math, Sharon also loved history and was especially fond of Civil War history and family genealogy. She recently discovered an unknown niece due to her interest in DNA matching and genealogy.

Sharon married Jerry Lee Woolery on November 11, 1989. She was also blessed with two daughters, Jane and Amanda. She adored her family and loved spending time with them, especially her two grandchildren, with whom she spent much time attending their various activities and concerts; she was their number one fan.

Sharon loved the Lord and was active with her church family at First Baptist Church, Broken Arrow, where she served as a ladies' prayer counselor and as the director of the Women of the Word women's ministry. She also loved to sing and was a member of the FBCBA Joy Singers. She previously served as a Church Advisory Board member for DaySpring Villa, and she was the former Women's Ministry Director at Garnett Road Baptist, where she also taught Sunday School with Jerry.

In her free time, Sharon enjoyed attending Bible Study Fellowship and traveling with Jerry. Together they enjoyed visiting historic locations and Civil War battlefields. In years past, Sharon and Jerry enjoyed square dancing and actually met and fell in love on the dance floor.
