“ I can't believe it was 18 years ago at a Radiology Convention we became friends!! I still can't believe this news! You really fought hard & did everything you could to keep going & I miss hearing from you or all your memes & reels that made me laugh! Big Skinny, You are the strongest radiology tech I've ever known, at the trauma center we always loved your muscles & how you always made the best out of bad situations, we were always laughing at work, even when we were tired from the long shifts or going out the night before!! You taught me so much about radiology & you have been there all these years listening to me vent about life & gave me advice about all my relationships, friendships & life changing events. I love that we always kept in touch on social media, & we talked about going back to Ireland, so when I do, I'll cheers for you! Your energy radiated positivity & was magnetic & always fun, I will always miss you & care about you forever my friend!

“ Big Skinny. My buddy. We always seemed to keep in touch after our time at OU. I remember our days at OUMC well. One of the best memories was after I had flown in a sick kiddo and was pretty beat up. You came over to me and said “this isn't easy, keep your head up.” You put your arm around me. That meant the world to me. The world is a little dimmer now that you've gone. I'll miss you buddy. Godspeed my friend.

“ Stephen had always been such a happy person whether working a Halloween fun house or talking football in his dad’s waiting room. He would sit down beside this old woman lady and would always make me laugh. His mom was so proud of him as he grew. Gone too soon. Jim and I pray that all the good memories will sustain his family.

“ I had the privilege of working with Stephen for almost 11 years. He became a true friend in that timeframe. He had the same love for high school football as my husband, Alva. They ended up bonding over football and each went with the other more than once to see their hometown schools play. Stephen had the biggest heart and we will always remember him by the way he cared about and treated others. You won't find a better friend. Rest easy, Stephen. We love you! Alva and Keri Roughface

“ Stephen was one of the most happy go lucky guys I've known. I Never saw him when he didn't have smile on his face. I've seen this young man grow up and sprout. We've had a long time friendship with his family, his dad, mom, sister and brother and he always respectfully called me Daddy Troy. He will be missed. Troy Lee
