“ When I first met Steve, I was in grade school when he and Jan came for a visit from college. We reconnected many years later and became good friends, enjoying many New Year's Eves together with our children, family and friends. Steve is a one-of-a-kind angel, his compassion and love for others, especially his family is immense. Steve would visit and care for our parents when we weren't able to and for that I am eternally grateful. His sense of humor was amazing and his kindness endless. You will be deeply missed my friend but we will meet again. Rest in peace.

“ My heartfelt condolences to Steve's family. I worked with Steve at the Department of Insurance for several years and he was the first attorney I ever met with a great sense of humor. He was always so kind to me and I will miss that glimmer of mischief he always had in his eyes. May his family find comfort reading these cherished memories of Steve.

“ One of the finest business minds housed in an attorney. He could explain how to do it right as well as why you could not do it your way. Godspeed.

“ So many memories of Steve from college years to more recent reunions at Transylvania and in Florida! Such a giving and warm spirit! Always with a happy smile. I don't believe I ever heard a cross word despite his health and musculoskeletal issues. I'm so grateful that his life was so full of different paths and adventures and am sure he wouldn't change much of it if he could. I feel so blessed to have known him and, by so doing, we were able to share a bit of our lives together for a season.

Farewell for now to a someone special! See you later!

“ I am saddened to learn of Steve's passing and send my heartfelt condolences to his family and many friends.

Steve was a person of immense integrity, a terrific attorney, and an amazing public servant. I met Steve when he first joined the Ohio Department of Insurance - he was a seasoned attorney from years of military service and I was a young and inexperienced attorney. I am grateful that Steve always made time for advice and counsel. Steve and I reconnected during my second tour of duty at ODI, where he was a trusted colleague and advisor to me and many ODI colleagues.

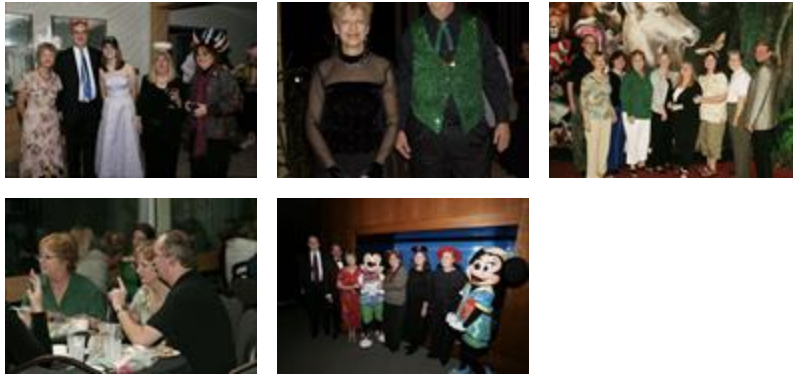

Steve was a consummate servant leader, always making time for public calls and questions, meetings with stakeholders, and time to provide me with sound advice at every turn. Steve was a proud father and amazing person. He was always a beacon of calm no matter the circumstance. I was honored to call Steve a friend, and to serve with him at ODI. Again, my sympathies to Steve's family and friends.

“ I’ve been friends with Steve since college days (aka since dinosaurs walked the earth) and a group of us Transy grads have stayed in touch through reunions, New Year parties, and recently via zoom groups to discuss movies and mystery books. We all love and will miss Steve tremendously. We’ve agreed, as we’ve gathered to talk about Steve’s untimely passing, that he is one of the kindest most unconditionally accepting persons we’ve known. I’ve no doubt that he is watching over us from above.

“ I remember when Steve came to our 1st Chapter Meeting. I was leading a group ride and Steve had never ridden with a group. told him to just stay behind me and take his time. Needless to say we broke him on this ride on a lot of hilly roads and also the 1st time he had ridden in the rain. I always enjoyed having him ride with us. Ben & Mary Bayes

“ Steve was a wonderful guy, I loved his sense of humor. He enjoyed riding his Goldwing with our Ohio B3 chapter and participated in many of our activities. He had a gentle spirit and was always ready to give a helping hand. He will be truly missed. I am certain he is riding in heaven with Bill now.

“ I had the fortunate opportunity to get to meet Steve this year and have an occasional lunch with him and a few buddies. He showed so much confidence in the way he lived his life having gone through such severe health conditions. He inspired me to be a better person. I am very sad for the family but want to say he was such a wonderful person. He will be sorely missed.
