Stephen Mark Hull was born on Tuesday, April 6, 1965 in Tulsa Oklahoma to Jerry and Linda (Asher) Hull. He left this earth for greener pastures on Wednesday, August 18, 2021 from Tulsa Oklahoma. His age was 56 years 4 months and 12 days. Services are under the direction of Hayhurst Funeral Home.

Stephen grew up in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He was proud of his Tulsa heritage. He knew a lot of facts about the city; in fact, you would probably call him a 'history buff' when it came to Tulsa history. Stephen enjoyed traveling and he was fortunate to travel all around the world.

Stephen had a daughter, two sons and five grandchildren. He adored his family and enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He had a good sense of humor and loved to make those around him laugh. One of his favorite pastimes was enjoying nature from his own backyard. He enjoyed hiking the trails in the parks around this area. He was a Boy Scout Master and was fond of camping with the boys. He liked watching movies and listening to music. He was a proud NRA member.

“ Stephen was my IT support person at MAPCO. We immediately became friends. He was very proud of his family and I fondly remember the family photograph with the velvet chair (blue I believe). I already greatly miss my wonderful friend. So considerate, talented, intelligent and fun. RIP my dear friend. My sincere condolences to all of you. My prayers are with each of you.
