The former Miss Suzanne Ferebee was a 1966 graduate of Nelson, Nebraska high school, where she was honored as Homecoming Queen. She married Wayne Dean Mosier on January 1, 1967 in Davenport, Nebraska. Wayne served in the United States Army during the Vietnam War, spending his time in Wurzburg, Germany. In 1978, they moved back to the farm where Wayne had grown up after his parents retired. Suzanne, who had studied classical piano with Willem van Overeem at Hastings College, had a thriving private piano studio where she taught upwards of 60 students. In 1980, when their daughter Alicia was four, they moved to Broken Arrow, Oklahoma where Wayne started his business, Lone Oak Building and Remodeling, Inc. Suzanne worked in the business as a bookkeeper and served as an accompanist for many churches and choral groups, as well as continuing her own studies in vocal music and the humanities. Suzanne and Wayne were inseparable, doing everything together. They particularly enjoyed cooking and tending their extraordinary garden. Suzanne was a voracious reader, a gifted visual artist and writer, and a devoted grandmother who will be remembered for her vivacious personality, her love of the arts, and her enthusiasm for life. She was a member of St. Anne Catholic Church in Broken Arrow. The family requests memorials to The bART Center for Music.

*Alisha, my sister Ginny and I were really good neighbor and country school friends with your mother and Aunt Barbara. There wasn't much we didn't try. 😊. She had such a wonderful musical gift and was always willing to play piano, sing, or play French horn when a need arose. I am so sorry for your loss. May your memories be a blessing.

Alicia I have so many fond memories of your mom. I'm heartbroken to hear of her passing. Her laugh and personality immediately filled a room. My Uncle Wayne and Aunt Suzanne were beautiful people, and will be missed by all of us who loved them so much. There is comfort knowing they are again together. Sending love and hugs to you all!

Sending my condolences to Suzanne's family and friends. She was my piano teacher for several years until she moved to Oklahoma. I believe that was during my senior year of high school. My sister and I also painted her house east of Sedan one summer. Such fun memories of my lessons with her. She played with emotion and fire. I have her hand writing in several of my books. (Also her side notes to cut my fingernails) I connected with her a few years back in FB, which was a wonderful blessing. I now teach K-8 music, piano lessons, and accompany our worship team and choir. Love to you all, Lora. ♡🎵♡
