

Terri Anne Clark

June 24, 1968 - April 23, 2026

Terri Anne Clark was born on Monday, June 24, 1968, in Houston, Texas, the daughter of Micheal and Doris (Bishop) Moser. She passed this life at her home in Broken Arrow on Thursday, April 23, 2026. She was 57 years, 9 months, and 30 days of age.

The former Miss Terri Anne Moser was a 1986 graduate of Broken Arrow High School. She earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from Oklahoma Baptist University in Shawnee, Oklahoma. Terri married Barry Clark Jr. on May 27, 1989, in Broken Arrow. These high school sweethearts celebrated 36 years of beautiful matrimony, filled with sincere adoration and steadfast partnership. Their love endured all trials and hard times while making earnest efforts to make even the little moments valued and special. Their love was an inspiration to those around them and an honor for their children to witness and cherish. She exemplified her favorite scripture, 1 Corinthians 13:4-5, "Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs." Terri possessed a rare kindness; her sweet spirit and kindred heart were deeply attuned to the needs and feelings of others, placing their well-being above all else. She had a natural way of softening the world around her, inspiring a deep sense of empathy and consideration in others. Her family was her greatest treasure, and she served as the quiet gravity and tender strength that held everyone close. Whether she realized it or not, as both the heart and the foundation of her home, Terri taught a masterclass in how to love by simply being herself.

For her three children, Terri was a sanctuary of comfort and encouragement. A dedicated mother who planted seeds of wisdom and identity in moments of comparison and doubt. She taught compassion and forgiveness. Even when facing her own adversities, she remained an unwavering protector, sheltering her babies in their heartaches and was faithfully committed to wiping away every tear. Terri was a natural nurturer who always wanted the best for them. She remains more than a mother; she was the foundation of their lives and one of their greatest blessings.

As a child, little Terri loved to put on shows to entertain and amuse her family. These charming performances ranged from singing songs, to acting out dramas, and telling silly jokes. She constantly delighted in making the people around her feel engaged and uplifted. In her younger years, Terri was an active presence on the softball fields. Some of her earliest favorite memories were formed on the diamond, where her mother coached both her and her sister—a legacy of connection she later sought to replicate by coaching her own daughter. This competitive spirit remained as vibrant as ever, particularly during family volleyball scrimmages at 'The Ranch.' While she typically played to win, her ambitious edge was tempered by grace. She valued effort and was a supportive teammate to anyone who gave their best. Her creativity shone through in the beautiful jewelry she crafted, which she generously gifted to close friends and every woman in the family; these prized keepsakes are even more dearly held today. At home, she found joy in the simple pleasures, like unwinding with her favorite shows, including Survivor and Big Brother, refining her culinary skills with the Food Network, or finding home makeover inspiration on HGTV. Above all, Terri was a weaver of fond memories. She lived for the moments when the family gathered, whether for a holiday or game nights, finding her greatest joy in creating a room filled with warm connection and heartfelt laughter.

“ Words can't express how much I miss you Terri! I have loved you since the day you were born. You were my baby. You were my best friend in this world. We've been through so much together and have always come out stronger. I will forever miss your gentle and loving way. I take comfort in knowing that your days of suffering are over and you're with Mom and Jesus. Until we see each other again, remember that you were loved more than you will ever know.
You big sister,
Leslie
