“ Dear Terri, I cherish the times we had talks of all sorts and shared stories of our pets. You had a heart of gold and were a very giving person. Im sorry we missed talking on Sat and cried like a baby on Tue when I heard of you passing. Then I realized Im crying for myself because you are home again and have no aches or pains and are whole once again. You are with your maker now rest in sweet peace. Love ya Ree

Terry, as I knew you. You are missed. I will never forget your kindness when I lost my son. Our talks and your support. You were truly comforting to be with. You will always be in my heart. Thank you so much for everything. I know from our talks you were a believer, so I'm glad to know that you have been reunited with Our Heavenly Father. Until we meet again, you'll forever be a part of me. Much love until later.
