“ Uncle Tim. I have a different view of family and thankfully to social media I got to spend more time with yours. I watched beautiful Christmas', birthdays, anniversaries, and other major adventures. My memories of you include awesome food, a witty, smart butt comment (that usually got the loving smack from Grandma) your love of beaches, and of Max. I remember Florida, and visiting with Grandma and Papa in Colorado. Laughter and fun and a great amount of love. Actually that is my biggest memory, the one that is at the top of my mind when I think of Uncle Tim (besides the speedo and short shorts of the early days with Aunt Teresa lol) sincerely, the greatest memory is the devotion you had to my Aunt Teresa. You cherished her and never failed to show it. The love you showed was inspirational both to us extended family and surely to your girls. They grew up wrapped in that love and it shows. Aunt Teresa, my heart hurts for you but we come from a strong line of women and with the girls and those beautiful grandboys you will thrive in this next season of life. Steph and Tori, Papa was the closest thing to a Dad I had and the pain of losing him never left me. I just this year was able to hang up Grandma and Papas picture on my walls. I still cry, and I still talk to them, and I still hurt, but I know that I was blessed to grow under them and you both were so blessed to grow in Aunt Teresa and Uncle Tim's love. From the bottom of my heart I love you all.

Tim always loved Teresa and his girls and honored them with the greatest of respect. This made him a big wonderful man in my eyes. A happy kind man. I love you my friend! Like I've said before, find an ocean shore you can sit by! RIP

“ I was a Daddy’s girl! His favorite holiday was anything where he could buy some gifts. He loved seeing our faces light up! I remember countless times where I would be going to the mall with friends and dad would hand me money and say, “Just please don’t tell your mom.” He is the person I always called on my way to work and home from work. He always had such great advice and absolutely loves his two grandkids. Daddy- I’m not sure right now how to do all of this but us three girls will figure it out. We love you so much! I promise to carry on all of your traditions and to do all of your amazing food dishes justice! Love you to the moon and back!

“ There are so many awesome and wonderful memories it's hard to pick some of the best. But for me some of the top ones are of Tim and I sliding down the mountain and splitting both of our pants wide open. Of course there was the time we were driving to Colorado. We had a caravan of vehicles and CB radios were the in thing. Tim didn't have one of those radios but he confirmed to everyone, oh he definitely had a CB traveling with him. Crazy Becky. Playing cards was always a big thing at mom and dad's but shuffling was a bit of a problem for Tim. I don't remember who actually bought it but Tim ended up with an automatic card shuffler. 😊 Love and miss you until we meet again!! 😊

Becky, when I was talking with Penny a couple of days ago, we talked about the blown out pants adventure...and chuckled all over again. It has filled my heart, all the wonderful memories that everyone has shared. Thanks sweetie, I love you.
