“ Drove the scenic route today. Windows down , Gospel up.
I felt you every step of the way. I heard you . I seen you.
Rest in Peace brother.
Thanks for today's conversation 🙏

“ I have so many memories of Tracy. I have a memory of being down at Fort Gibson lake sitting in the old yellow van with him and he was drawing a picture of the scenery around camp and I was amazed and wished that I could draw like that. I vividly remember the 4th of July where he was running and clotheslined himself and cut his nose. Then there was another 4th of July weekend where we were playing games out by the pool and when it was time for bed somehow we all ended up trying to sleep in one king sized bed, I believe we had 5 people in there, lol. 🤞 I love 💕 you Tracy and you will be missed!

“ The old neighborhood got a little smaller now that you've gone. Although our lives took different paths, I will always cherish the memories of our childhood. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Tracy I will never forget growing up in the neighborhood with you. I know I annoyed you and Todd but you still let me play football etc. The other day we were talking about the time I was just 3 years old and I had fallen of the tower in my parents backyard. Apparently it knocked the wind out of me and mom said you and Todd just walked in the house as casual as could be and told her I was dead and kept on playing. I've never laughed so hard, totally sounded like you two. Good times we all had! Prayers my friend/brother! You will be missed!

“ Tracy was the 1st person to ever talk openly with me about God. The relationship I have with the Lord today is because of conversations we had 23 years ago. Tho our conversations were not always loving, I will miss you dearly
