

Tyler "T.J." James Parker

July 30, 2002 - June 25, 2019

A Graveside Service for Tyler "T.J." James Parker has been scheduled for 3:00 PM, Friday, June 28, 2019 at Park Grove Cemetery in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

T.J. was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma on Tuesday, July 30, 2002, the son of Michael and Sharon Hope Parker. He died in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma on Tuesday, June 25, 2019. He was 16 years of age.

T.J. was a student at Tulsa Tech Aerospace Academy. He loved airplanes and had a dream to work on big corporate planes one day. T.J. was a clerk at QuikTrip. Since his first day on the job, he fell in love with being in the work field of QT. He was a member of skills U.S.A. The very first time he had a Skills event, he gave a speech he wrote in front of 200 people and quickly became an officer. T.J. was a very passionate person about everything he was intrigued by. He loved Airplanes, drawing, and magic card throwing. If you ever got him talking on one of those subjects, you would not be able to get him to stop. He loved to show off and always got excited over the littlest thing. T.J. had the biggest goofy smile and easily made others smile with his jokes and endless care that he demonstrated toward others. He always put others first and that was one of many qualities that made him who he was.

The family requests memorials in honor of T.J. to the Tulsa Tech Aerospace Academy, 801 East 91st Street, Tulsa, OK 74132.

T.J. is survived by,

Parents, Mike and Sharon Parker, Broken Arrow, OK

Sisters, Charity King and husband Colton, Broken Arrow, OK

Abby Parker, Broken Arrow, OK

Delaney Parker, Broken Arrow, OK

Grandmother, Faith Ford-Tinsley, Broken Arrow, OK

Grandparents, Peggy and Garry Kughn, Oklahoma City, OK

“ TJ was my best friend for 3 years I knew TJ better than I knew anyone else. We talk almost every day together, we played rocket league a lot, board games, help each other with school work. I never got to meet TJ in real life, and that will always be my regret. I am so sorry for your loss parker family. I wish I had known sooner and may TJ rest in peace.

“ Bubba,

Today is not a sad day but a day of remembrance and celebration. A celebration of your life and all the ways you impacted my life and the life of others. Today I remember all the good times we shared and all the laughs and smiles you gave me. Never did a day go by that you didn't put a smile on my face. Never did a day go by where you didn't make me the proudest sister. Never did a day go by where my love for you stopped growing. Everyday my heart grew bigger and bigger because of your love. You showed me how to be strong even when I thought I couldn't. You showed me how to never give up even in the toughest of situations. You showed me that even though life is hard I have to take every day one step at a time with a smile on my face and a positive attitude. You showed me that there is always a light at the end of the tunnel even in my darkest times. You are my rock and you will forever be my rock. No matter the day or time you were always quick to listen to me about anything. No matter how stupid the topic was you always sat right next to me with an arm over my shoulder listening so closely to every word I said and you never failed to know the right things to say to me. No matter what the situation is I know you are still here with me to listen to my rants and tell me exactly what I need to hear. Today I remember all our nights we spent together playing board games and stuffing our faces until we threw up. You were my game buddy, when I was in a board game mood you were always the first to drop everything you were doing and play any game with me no matter how late it got. I will always remember how mad you got when we would play games because in your eyes I always cheated and that's the only way I could win. You always told me "you only want to play monopoly because you can cheat and win and no one will know because your cheater self is always banker which makes no sense because you can't even count change you always have to ask me what to give back". I will always remember the day I bought monopoly cheaters edition because you grew the biggest smile and said "finally a game made for a cheater like you". And man did I cheat. The next step I take after this moment will be for you everything I do will be to make you proud of me. You were the one person who believed with all your heart I would make something great out of myself even through all my downs and if it wasn't for that I wouldn't have been able to pull myself together. I will always walk in your memory and never let a soul forget, take care of Flash for me. This is not goodbye but see you later. Fly high and free. I love you forever and always bubba ❤️✈️

“ My deepest sympathy for the Parker family. I met T.J. in Atlanta during the Aerospace Maintenance Competition in which he competed as a student competitor. As the Chairman for the competition I get the privilege to meet all of the competitors and T.J. was certainly a stand out person. He was very warm, professional and happy. God Bless you T.J. and may you rest in peace.

“ TJ we will miss you so much.. I have lots of memories I wont be able to share them all. I will forever keep them very close to my heart. One that does stand out and is very funny. ADAM wasnt big on going trick or treating but you talked him into going when you guys were around 10 and we got up to a place in the neighborhood and a guy came around the corner of house with a chainsaw and you guys took off running and Adam was telling you this is why I didnt wanna come. We love you Until we meet again With lots of love from your second Mom (Belinda)

“ Dearest Sharon and Family, I know these are very difficult days for you all to endure. I am very sorry for your loss and words seem so inadequate. I pray that God will wrap His arms around your family and surround you with the comfort that only He can provide. I will be out of town Friday, but I be thinking of all of you and your precious son.
