“ I almost forgot her name was Vera. My children and I always called her Mamaw. Auntie Peggy and Mamaw came all of the way to OKC many times when my daughter was born to help in my time of need. My children's grandparents lived far away so she and Max have become grandparents to my children. They will always be Mamaw and Papaw to us.

We love you, Mamaw. You are so precious to us, but even more important, you are so precious to Jesus. Praise the Lord you are with Him now!

“ It's hard to find the words to describe the love and respect Roger and I have for this beautiful lady. Always smiling, always ready to give a kiss and always making you feel happy just to be close to her. The Brissey's welcomed us into the fellowship of our great church when we came as a newlywed couple. If ever a family deserved an award for "Family of the Year", it was Max, Vera, and their 3 precious kids! It will be sad to think she's not near y....but the reunion in Heaven will be more beautiful than we can begin to imagine. So, I'll "Meet You In The Morning", Vera Jane....so "Look for Me"!! 🎵

“ This earth has lost such an angel! I have loved her and Max as long as I can remember. How I loved to hear her and Max sing their duets at church. My parents loved Max and Vera so much especially since dad and Max were both dairy farmers. When my Mom died, the first person I called was Vera to see if her and Max could sing mom's favorite song, The Old Rugged Cross, at her funeral and of course she said they would be honored to. They sang it the prettiest I had ever heard. She was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever known and I know the family and the Church will greatly miss her.

“ I loved this sweet lady. Some of my favorite memories of her were watching her play the accordian in the orchestra at church. She would really get going when she could talk Sis Dodd into joining her. She seemed to always be smiling. She was such a great mate to Max and a wonderful mother to Peggy, Phillip, and Charles. Heaven gets sweeter every day!
