

Victor R. Guardino

September 9, 1955 - May 30, 2025

Victor Robert Guardino was born on September 9, 1955, in Long Island, New York, to Phillip and Fanny (Filomena) Guardino. He passed away in Tulsa, Oklahoma, on May 30, 2025, at the age of 69.

Victor grew up in New York and developed a love for sports early in life, especially football, baseball, and hockey. He lived there until 1979, when he moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma, which remained his home.

A dedicated and hardworking business owner, Victor built a successful career creating and installing commercial shelving systems. Though his work required travel, it was always driven by business, not for leisure. His true joy in traveling came through meaningful trips with his family, often to visit loved ones in New York and Georgia and annual family vacations.

Victor was also a passionate and skilled poker player. After winning the World Series of Poker in Oklahoma, he earned a coveted spot in a major Las Vegas tournament—an exciting highlight in his life. He also looked forward to his annual golf trips with his closest friends, where stories were shared, jokes were told, and memories were made.

Family was the center of Victor's world. He shared his love of baseball, especially for the Yankees with his children and grandchildren, cheering from the stands and the living room. He cherished time spent at family gatherings and vacations, where laughter and connection were always present.

Victor is survived by his daughter, Kaylin Bergeron and her husband Nick of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; his son, Benjamin Guardino of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; and three beloved grandchildren, Jayden, Maverick, and Ava Bergeron. He is also survived by his sister, Phyllis Bronzo and her husband Bob of East Patchogue, New York; his former spouse, Diane Guardino of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; and many cousins, other relatives, and dear friends. He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Ronald Guardino. Victor will be remembered for his strong spirit, quick wit, and unwavering devotion to those he loved.
