“ When I was growing up, the Schnelle family lived down the road by the schoolhouse where we all attended school. I have very fond memories of the family and I spent a lot of time at their home. Their mother, Julia, even let me bake a cake for my mother in her kitchen. My deepest condolences to the family at this time of loss.

“ *My condolences to Violet's family and friends. When one has lived a good, long life such as Violet has, there must be many good memories to share. My thought, though is more about the hope we have of seeing Violet again in the resurrection. Jesus promised this in the fifth chapter of John. As you celebrate her life, take comfort in her future.
