Wanda Larue Goodson was born on Sunday, December 4, 1938 to parents Elzie D. and Edna (Kasiner) Warren in Kinta, Oklahoma. She passed away in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma to meet her family gone before her on Thursday, May 14, 2026 at the age of 87.

Wanda was one of two daughters. She was a high school graduate of Kinta High School. She met the love of her life, Jack Goodson and they married in on Monday, August 31, 2009. They had three children. Wanda was widowed at a very early age. She was young when the death of her daughter occurred as well. It was tough on Wanda losing some of her immediate family so early in life.

During her life time, Wanda was the business owner of a local liquor store as well as a bridal shop. Wanda was part of the VFW organization and enjoyed going to the dances there. She was known as the "Fun Grandma". Traveling whenever and wherever she could was her favorite thing except for her daily coffee.
