

Wanda Ivie

January 23, 1941 - October 22, 2020

Wanda Lee Ivie was born in Big Flat, Arkansas on Thursday, January 23, 1941 to Roy and Fannie Mable (Downs) Curtis. She passed to the other side on Thursday, October 22, 2020 at her home in Beggs, Oklahoma at the age of 79 years old. Pastor Roy Moffeitt of 1st Baptist in Morris, Oklahoma will officiate the service under the direction of Hayhurst Funeral Home in the Chapel.

Wanda was a high school graduate and furthered her education with some college credits and training to get her CNA license and worked in Home Health. She was such a caring person which made her very good at her job. Wanda met Lonnie Ivie and they married in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Later they settled in Coweta, Oklahoma.

She had four children, one step-daughter, 14 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. She loved them all dearly.

Lonnie and Wanda enjoyed traveling to many locations and sightseeing. They might stop off and do some fishing along the way.

Wanda appreciated antiques and collected a few, but she was fond of just window shopping to see what was out there. Her hobbies also consisted of bowling, gardening and bird watching. She liked to shop at Walmart and purchase their really good deals.

In lieu of flowers please consider making a donation to St. Francis Hospice on her behalf.
