“ I only knew Wayne for about 2 years, but he was a great guy. He always had something funny to say to me or my employees at the bank. He knew when they were having a bad day and even brought a box of tissues to one of my tellers when she was crying. It struck me like an anvil on the head to hear Wayne had passed, though I knew it was coming. You just can't be ready to hear that such a personality was gone. I was thinking of Wayne today now almost 2 years later and still laughed at his jokes.
