“ Marc, to you and to all the Farris family, I'm so sorry for your loss. The years at BHS cheering on Bill and all the other wonderful players have provided me many fond memories. When Bill lived in Kansas City, we had a chance to meet up and reminisce. It's good to know of his life successes.

I wish you all peace and comfort.

“ So many memories, where to start? Bill, Mike, and Andrew moving to Illinois and becoming part of our extended family almost 30 years ago. Final Four basketball parties, Christmas celebrations, cook outs, Maggie becoming part of the Farris clan and the Bill's marriage to beautiful Susan. So many memories it would fill pages of this post.

We are blessed to have known Bill this side of heaven and know we will see him again. His legacy of love and care of his family and extended “family” lives on in others who know and live him.
