Together, they had four children: Mike, Laura, David and Tony. Bill supported his family by working as a fraud investigator for the oil and gas industry at Sun Oil Company in Tulsa, OK. Bill’s love of baseball made him a great baseball coach to his children, and he spent many years coaching Tulsa youth in various sports. Bill enjoyed camping and spending time with his family. During his retirement, he enjoyed playing slot machines at various local casinos in Tulsa. Bill was known for his dry sense of humor and the ability to make everyone laugh.

“ Bill and I knew each other from elementary school through high school. Bill and I were teammates most of those years. Bill and I were both baseball pitchers...we spent some time on the bench. Bill had a distinctive knuckle ball which was difficult to hit. I considered Bill my friend!
