Wilma was born on Saturday, March 11, 1933 in Proctor, Oklahoma to W.D. and Betty Viola (West) Hastings. She graduated from Westville High School. On December 4, 1954 Wilma married Herbert Morris in a Tahlequah wedding ceremony. Their union was blessed with three children. Wilma was a wonderful wife and mother; family was her world. She had many friends and if you had the pleasure of knowing her, you loved her. She loved hosting backyard get-togethers by the pool and all were invited because Wilma believed the more the merrier.

Wilma enjoyed shopping and getting manicures/pedicures with her beloved daughter using Herbert's money. Wilma also loved getting the family together for family dinners on special occasions or just because. She also enjoyed watching sports, including Texas Rangers baseball, OKC Thunder basketball and all football. One of her most favorite things to do was to simply sit on the back porch and enjoy time with her Herbert.

Memorials may be made to St. Francis Hospice 6600 S. Yale Ave, #350,

“ Wilma Lee was the happiest and most outgoing person I have ever met in my life. I got acquainted with her when we worked at a local bank. My husband and I were new to the area, had limited funds and didn't go out very much at all, but the few times we did, Wilma Lee volunteered to "baby sit" our then five year old daughter even though her daughter Kim was around the same age. . My daughter simply adored Wilma Lee and couldn't wait for her to watch her again. Wilma Lee played with the girls - had tea parties and was just another girl - not an adult or sitter. There was so much laughter and happiness whenever Wilma Lee was nearby - she was a people magnet because she enjoyed life and included you. God Bless You Wilma Lee, you were a good PR person for God. My deepest sympathies to her husband and children and their families.

“ *My Aunt Wilma Lee was the most positive, upbeat person I have ever known.
I never heard her say a negative comment about anyone, and she never hesitated to tell you that she loved you.
She is an angel who will always be looking down on us.
Rest In Peace, precious one.* 🙏❤️
