“ Wilma was my dear sister in Beta Sigma Phi for fifty plus years. Gene and I went with her and Dick on many ski trips to Colorado. She stayed with me on the bunny slopes until I got my ski legs under me. She never disappointed us with her programs on history of our country at our Sorority meetings, she loved her history. She and I shared our love of God in good time and bad - I'll miss her - God bless Dick and the family - I love you.

“ Wilma was a treasured member of our church family at First Christian for many many years. I have the privilege of teaching our Faith Sunday School class and Wilma, Dick and sister Wanda always sat on the first row. Wilma was my most attentive student. She loved studying the Word and learning as much as possible. Wilma was active in our women’s group CWF for many years. Our group meets on Thursday and we have a fellowship lunch first. Wilma would come late as she had to make her weekly beauty salon appointment! She would not eat lunch because she said she would eat with Dick later. She was devoted to him. Wilma was a patriot, loved being a part of the DAR and loved our country greatly. But God came first in her life. Always. Her heart was pure. She sought God’s Will first. Family came second and she and Dick enjoyed so much taking their grandson Braxton to church with them. Years ago our Sunday school class had a fellowship dinner at their home. Covering her long table was a stunning tablecloth on which she had embroidered the most intricate designs of flowers. It was beautiful work. I remarked how beautiful it was and she said she just loved to embroider. I do too but my work pales in comparison. At our fellowship dinners, Wilma’s dish was always a crockpot of creamed corn that was gone very quickly. I always tried to make sure I had some. If we ever get to have dinners like that again, I will make Wilma’s corn in honor of her. What a beautiful, faithful servant of God. I will miss her terribly even though I know she is now reunited with her family. God rest her soul and comfort those left behind.
