“ A memory I can think about is Bro. Jacob loved to share his plants, it didn't matter if they could grow in this part of the world or not he was willing to try. We knew if there were plants at church he probably brought them for someone else to try a hand at. I don't think I ever saw him not smiling and it was a joy to talk to him. He loved his wife greatly and to see the two of them together was sweet. We will miss you but look forward to seeing you again in Heaven, what a day that will be!
